There are similarities between auto detailing and car washing, but auto detailing goes much deeper than simply cleaning your car inside and out. When considering auto detailing, one starts with car washing and vacuuming. Then, using more specialized tools and car detailing supplies, auto detailers give your car a much deeper cleaning.

The Complete Car Detailing Guide | Step-by-Step

Car detailing involves cleaning and reconditioning the interior and exterior of the car. The aim of this is to restore the paintwork by eliminating scratches or swirl marks to make the car look almost brand new like it did when you first drove it out of the shop.

Always, always, always start with the wheels. We can't say it enough. Your wheels are the grubbier area of the car so will require a good pre-soak with a quality wheel cleaner. You'll need brushes to get to the hard-to-reach areas, along with a separate wash mitt and bucket than you'd use on the paintwork.
