~~Paid For: My Journey Through Prostitution by Rachel Moran~~

Rachel Moran's matter-of-fact memoir, Paid For, My Journey Through Prostitution, is shocking, sordid and desperately sad. Painful to write, painful to relive and at times painful to read it is, however, as absorbing and enlightening insight into the darkest and indeed most perverted corners of Irish society.

~~Paid for: My Journey Through Prostitution: Moran, Rachel~~

"Paid For," by Rachel Moran, is Moran's account of her seven years in the sex trade, starting at the age of fifteen. Beyond being a compelling and beautifully written memoir it is, in my opinion, a seminal work that could shift how we, as a society, think about prostitution.
