Alhambra Gardens are a living Wonder of the World. Its centuries old Moorish architecture and tranquil greenery is paradise on Earth.... If there was ever a place to rival the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, the Alhambra Gardens must be it. It is a pity that none of the new seven wonders focuses on living things.

The Alhambra is located on the Sabika hill, one of the highest areas in Granada and from where the entire city is dominated. It is surrounded by mountains and watered by the Darro and Genil rivers. With this location, not surprising, it will be chosen as the residence of the Nasrid dynasty since the 13th century.
