Apostles' Creed | Christianity | Britannica

The Christian isn't simply stating in the Apostles' Creed that he believes Jesus existed, or even just that he believes Jesus died for sinners. The Christian proclaims that he believes Jesus died for him, and that his only comfort in life and in death is being known by Jesus his Savior. Second, we proclaim that Jesus is the Son of God. Even ...

Core Christianity | 12 Things the Apostles Creed Teaches Us

The Apostles' Creed has been with the church from almost the very beginning (in some form). It is a statement of belief that contains the important facets of what Christians should hold as true. The Apostles' Creed is not a statement to be made that guarantees a person salvation if they recite it, it is a condensed theological system that reflects what is right for a follower of Jesus Christ to believe.

What is the Apostles Creed?

Is it in the Bible?

The word creed is particularly used for a concise statement which is recited as part of liturgy. The term is anglicized from Latin credo "I believe", the incipit of the Latin texts of the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed. A creed is sometimes referred to as a symbol in a specialized meaning of that word (which was first introduced to Late Middle English in this sense), after Latin symbolum ...
