The Earl of Louisiana - A. J. Liebling - Google Books

A terrific narrative describing Louisiana politics right before the Civil Rights movement hit it. Earl Long was Huey's younger brother and another fascinating character. The whole book gives a tactile feel of the characters and setting that is rare using language that is so simple and subtle.

A.J. Liebling's The Earl of Louisiana, ch Established by Huey Long, whose assassination in 1935 prevented it from going national, and kept alive in Louisiana by his brother Earl, Longism did much to elevate the lives of poor people—while lining the pockets of well-connected elites—and made the state weirdly progressive in an era of reactionary dominance in the South.
