Paul Tillich (Author of The Courage to Be)

Paul Tillich was a very popular theologian in the mid-twentieth century. Exiled from Germany when Hitler came to power in 1933, Tillich placed himself ‘on the boundary’ (a later title of an autobiographical sketch) between philosophy and theology. His acquaintance with the philosopher (and Nazi-supporter) Martin Heidegger (they were both at the university of Marburg in the 1920s) led him ...
