postmodern age. Postmodernity is characterised by an unstable, fragmented, media saturated global village, where we define ourselves by what we consume. For postmodernists, society today is not a continuation of modernity but a fundamental break from it.

Postmodernism – Unit 4 – Theories
– sociologysaviour

Postmodernism is generally defined by an attitude of skepticism, irony, or rejection toward what it describes as the grand narratives and ideologies associated with modernism, often criticizing Enlightenment rationality and focusing on the role of ideology in maintaining political or economic power.

Toward a Postmodern Theory of Law*. The work of a lawyer is commonly understood to consist of searching for and locating in the codes and laws the appropriate disposition to solve a case and apply the legal consequences anticipated by the norm to the situation in controversy. To date, the philosophy of law produced and taught at universities in Venezuela and the rest of the world corresponds to that conceptualization.
